Chicago. Aug. 16.—New York defeated chicago this afternoon in the first game of their series here by a score of 6 to 3. Lundaren was in the box for the home team and started off in great shape, and the first four of the visiting players who tasted his pitching struck out. After that he began to go to the bad, however, and on the whole game Laylor easily had the better of the pitching. Chicago helped the visitors along by costly errors and the New Yorks batted heavily at the proper moments. In the fourth inning Brodie lammed out a home run, the ball going into the right field bleachers, and in the ninth Bresnahan walloped out a triple to centre the first of these marked the beginning of Landgren's downfall.

Never did Grand Circuit meet have a more brilliant wind-up. Even the transfer of Dan Patch's time race to Thursday was not regretted as the belief grows stronger daily that Lord Derby is the coming champion of trotters and he is the public's idol at present It was bout 4:10 o'clock when E. E. Smathers came out with Lord Derby to trot his opening heat against the crack Louise Jefferson who a week ago defeated Derby to wagon at the Empire City track in 2:09%

Both animals were excited and danced up and down in scoring, refusing to strike a trot for fully a dozen attempts. Finally they were on a trot but when the word was given Lord Derby was practically standing as Mr. Smathers was about to turn thinking his rival could

All competition ended and it simply became a time contest so the big crowd settled back to see the fast son of Mambrino King go his momentous journey. On reaching the half the timers noted 1:0314.

"He has it beaten now," quietly remarked d Geers. "I think Mr. Smathers should Ed Geers. finish it in 2:05 or better. I never had him over there as fast. At the three-quarters it was 1:35 and there

Lord Derby's owner sat down to a grand homestretch drive. He leaned out as far is his arms would admit, delicately tapped Derby with the whip tip, rallied him with rein and voice from the distance stand to the wire so that the big fellow seemed fairly to appreciate the importance of keeping to the true path and with ears laid back snappily, head resolutely swinging from side to side in pendulum fashion, as if to show how easy it were, Lord Derby reached the wire in 2004, without a faiter. The last quarter in 305, seconds was remarkable when it is con-sidered that the rain must have left the stretch somewhat soft.

Records were smashed. Lord Derby cut his own race record to harness of 2.00%, lowered John A. McKerron's time record of 2.06%, a second and York Boy's 2.08%, made earlier in the afternoon on the same track with con-

It was Lord Derby's day of days as he was never inclined to act meanly after getting away and had a shoe off at the time unknown to either owner or trainer and a head wind held him in the third quarter not a little It was cold and an unfavorable day for record making or breaking. Derby drew a fort—one pound wagon made recently especially for this attempt and with some novel features. He will be a starter at Cleveland for the Boston challenge cup and represent New York in the competition. After reshoeing him Mr. Smathers repeated him in 2.96%, finishing alone, as Mr. Billings's mare was so cranky he had to go a full mile slowly utilizing the finish as a score to fool her and get a start, consequently Louise Jefferson went practically a two-mile heat. get a start, consequently Louise Jefferson went practically a two-mile heat. She does not like her owner's driving for some unknown reason.

Prior to Lord Derby's wonderful mile. Charles Bedford, son of E. T. Bedford, won the second heat of the wagon special with his father's York Boy. 2008a, to harness, lowering John McA. Kerron's and The Monk's joint race record to wagon of 2:10 to 2:08%. As a race it was featureless, as neither Allee Barnes, 2:11%, nor aught else in it had York Boy's speed to finish. Mr. Smathers rated Alice along, acting in the capacity of pacemaker and it was due not a little to her splendid work as runner up that Mr. Bedford's effort was crowned with success. The 2:07 trot was expected to be a battle between Anzella, the unbeaten California mare of the season, and The Monk in the early besting and when he won a heat got on a little more, it was said. It was Anzella and The Monk throughout the race. The mare challenged and went to a break, then came at the end fast in each of the first two heats. In the second she was timed home from the half in 1:02%, and the last three-quarters in 1:34%. In the third heat with The Monk favorite at $50 to $40 Anzella kept her stride when the pinch came and won under a grand drive in 2:07%. She came back in 2:08 with Geers giving up with The Monk at the short flag as he was all out and the whip failed to rally him. The last heat saw Anzella $50 to $15 favorite and little betting. She trotted The Monk to a standstill and worf in 2:08½—a wonderfully fast series of heats.

Pinchem Wilkes won his heat in the novelty pace in 2:07%, the blind horse record, as he is entirely sightless. New Richmond held the honor with his 2:08%. Leon McDonald did a neat piece of driving behind Carl Wilkes in the third heat. The horse broke right at the end and it looked as if he must lose, yet McDonald nipped him just in time and saved the heat and his backers their money.

Dr. Monical ran away from dack in the last event, winning at will in 2:16, 2:12¼.

A matine will be held at on the Western trip.

EXCITING GRETNA GREEN RACE. Couples Ride Hand in Hand at Southampton Pony Meet.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 16 .- The younger fashionable set this afternoon raced over the Southampton plains in a Gretna Green race. To the minds of the assembled summer colony it was the best part of the annual pony races. It was a hand-in-hand race in which Miss Mary Harriman with Frederick C. Bishop as her escort won by a dash at the finish from little Miss Carolyn Putnem and James G. K. Lawrence. Miss Peabody and R. H. Williams, Jr., finished third.

The men assisted the women to their sad-dies at the word of the starter. Then there was a wild scramble down the field. Miss Kennedy was unhorsed by her partner Haven Peabody, who dragged her from her saddle. She fell to the ground just as she reached the barrel upon which they were to write their names. Several of the other women had hard experiences in trying to gain the saddle after the dismount. The races were run on the new track specially built by the Southampton Horse Show Association. A band played upon the lawn while beside the grand stand were lined four-in-hands, drags, brakes and handsomely quipped carts.

August Belmont, Jr., was second in the first equipped carts.

August Belmont, Jr., was second in the first race and won the fourth race. He had two of the crack ponies from his father's stable, Chief and Warrior. In the first he was beaten in a driving finish by a nose and in the fourth race he beat the favorite, Northumberland, by the narrowest kind of a margin. Starter was a hot favorite in the fifth race. Again the tip was wrong and Irving Hey had a struggle to get the place. He afterward lodged a profest of foul, which was not allowed.

CLOSE RACES ON THE HARLEM. Annual Regatta of Nonparell Rowing Club Furnishes Good Sport.

The Nonpareil Rowing Club held its twentyourth annual regatta yesterday on the Harlem River and the members and their friends had a gala time. All the races were half a mile in length on a course between the Friendship Boat Club and a little north of the new Lenox avenue bridge was a strong tide with the racers and this coupled with a smart breeze, helped the oursmen to make fast time. There were no accidents of note, but the competition was as good and keen as could be expected from a confined programme. The starting was entrusted to "Jack" Nagle of the Harlem Rowing Club and he got the men away in rare fashion. The referee was E. M. Maher of the same club. J. Weldon Trainor of the Dauntless Rowing Club, officiated as Judge at the finish JUNIOR SINGLE GIG.

This advantage Canavan's crew maintained to the finish and their time was 1 minute 27 seconds. No. 1 crew was second in 1 minute 28½ seconds. No. 2 crew was third.

Waller Retains His Title of Eastern Long Island Champton.

Southampton, Aug. 16.—The final match of the Long Island lawn tennis championship series was played to-day and resulted in Stewart Waller successfully defending his title and trophy as the eastern Long Island champion. Waller defeated Guy Phelps Dodge, the challenger, by the score of 7-5, 6-2, 8-3.

The competition was played on the courts of the Meadow Club which were heavy from the rain of last night. In a previous tournament Dodge, who is an old-time Yale player, had qualified to Challenge Waller. Steadiness and staying qualities gained the victory for Waller and the permanent possession of the Ruggles Challenge cup, which has been in competition for eight years. The Marvellous Purchasing Power of a Two-Dollar Bill at The Big Store To-Morrow.

If the author of that time-honored phrase, "There is nothing new under the sun," could visit the Siegel-Cooper Store these busy August days he would very materially change his opinion. New ideas are everywhere this big store. If he could visit the main aisle in the men's clothing store and see the throngs of men of all professions, all ages, all heights and weights, and see how perfectly and quickly each is fitted to a pair of new trousers at the wonderfully small price of
